The above table(s) may contain protected information. You are granted access to this information in your capacity as a UNLV employee. In reporting information, if cell size (typically 10 or fewer) or other information would make a faculty member's identity "easily traceable," that information would be considered personally identifiable. Educational agencies and institutions should use generally accepted statistical principles and methods to ensure that the data are reported in a manner that fully prevents the identification of individuals. If that cannot be done, the data must not be reported.
